Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 29, 2009, Celldex Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Celldex"), announced that it entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of May 28, 2009 (the "Merger Agreement") by and among Celldex, CuraGen Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CuraGen"), and Cottrell Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Celldex (the "Merger Sub"). The Merger Agreement has been approved by the Boards of Directors of Celldex and CuraGen and is subject to customary closing conditions, including stockholder approvals. A copy of a press release announcing the merger is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into CuraGen (the "Merger"), with CuraGen being the surviving corporation of the Merger and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Celldex.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, other than shares of CuraGen's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "CuraGen Common Stock") held in treasury by CuraGen or beneficially owned by Celldex, each share of CuraGen Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), including shares of restricted stock, shall be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Celldex's common stock, par value $0.01 ("Celldex Common Stock"), calculated pursuant to an exchange ratio described in the Merger Agreement (the "Exchange Ratio"). The aggregate purchase price payable in the Merger, which is initially set at $94,500,000, is subject to adjustment based, in part, on CuraGen's net cash position as of the Closing. The purchase price will adjust upward if CuraGen's Cash at Closing Amount (as defined in the Merger Agreement) exceeds $54,500,000 by $1.30 for each $1.00 of excess until the aggregate purchase price reaches $97,500,000, and thereafter by $1.00 for each $1.00 of excess up to a maximum aggregate purchase price of $100,000,000. The purchase price will adjust downward if CuraGen's Cash at Closing Amount is less than $54,500,000 by $1.00 for each $1.00 of the shortfall. The foregoing adjustment is described in further detail in the Merger Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate number of shares of Celldex Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger shall in no event exceed 58.0% or fall beneath 32.5% of the shares of Celldex Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately after the Effective Time. No fractional shares of Celldex Common Stock will be issued in connection with the Merger, and holders of CuraGen Common Stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Celldex shall, at the Effective Time, assume all CuraGen stock options that were issued under CuraGen's 2007 Stock Plan and such options will fully vest and be converted into options to acquire a number of shares of Celldex Common Stock determined by multiplying the number of shares of CuraGen Common Stock subject to such options immediately prior to the Effective Time by the Exchange Ratio. Celldex shall not assume any of CuraGen's stock options that were issued under CuraGen's 1997 Stock Plan, which stock options will, to the extent not yet vested, fully vest and terminate and be of no further force and effect upon consummation of the Merger if not exercised prior to that time.

Further, in connection with the Merger, Celldex shall execute a supplemental indenture (the "Supplemental Indenture") to that certain Indenture, dated as of February 17, 2004, between CuraGen and The Bank of New York (the "Indenture") in respect of CuraGen's 4.0% Convertible Subordinated Notes due February 15, 2011 (the "Notes") currently outstanding under the Indenture.

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon consummation of the Merger, the size of the Board of Directors of Celldex (the "Board") will be set at nine members, consisting of (i) Celldex's eight current directors and (ii) one additional director agreed upon by Celldex and CuraGen, who is expected to be Timothy M. Shannon, M.D. (the "CuraGen Director").

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, CuraGen is not permitted to solicit other proposals and may not share information or have discussions regarding alternative proposals, except in certain circumstances. CuraGen may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including if its board of directors determines in good faith that it has received a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and otherwise complies with certain terms of the Merger Agreement. In connection with such termination, CuraGen must pay to Celldex a termination fee of $3,500,000. Similarly, Celldex may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances. Celldex is also required to pay to CuraGen a termination fee of $3,500,000 in connection with certain terminations of the Merger Agreement by CuraGen.

Each of CuraGen and Celldex has made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and has agreed to customary covenants, including covenants regarding the operation of the business of CuraGen and Celldex and its subsidiaries prior to the Closing. The Closing is subject to customary closing conditions, including (i) the approval by Celldex's shareholders of the issuance of shares of Celldex Common Stock pursuant to the Merger, (ii) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by CuraGen's shareholders, (iii) the absence of certain legal impediments to the consummation of the Merger, (iv) the filing of an effective registration statement on Form S-4 with respect to the shares of Celldex Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (v) the execution by Celldex of a Supplemental Indenture in respect of the Notes and (vi) the receipt by each party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto with respect to the transactions described above, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties made by the parties to each other regarding certain matters. The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be complete or accurate as of a particular date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that is different from those generally applicable to stockholders and/or were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing certain matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts at the time they were made or otherwise.

(b) Buyer and the Company shall share the fees and expenses of the Accountant's review and report based upon what portion of the changes called for in the Buyer Objection Statement are reflected in the Closing Statement, as follows: (1) the Buyer shall be responsible for an amount equal to the total amount of such fees and expenses multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the difference (if any) between (A) the Cash at Closing Amount shown on the Statement (after adjusting the Statement to reflect all of the changes called for in the Buyer Objection Statement) and (B) the Cash at Closing Amount as shown on the Closing Statement, and the denominator of which is the difference between (C) the Cash at Closing Amount as shown on the Statement (after adjusting the Statement to reflect all of the changes called for in the Buyer Objection Statement) and (D) the Cash at Closing Amount as shown on the Statement and (2) the Company shall be responsible for the balance of such fees and expenses.

3.4 Treatment of Options.

(a) At the Effective Time, the Company's obligations with respect to each Assumed Option will be assumed by the Buyer. Each Assumed Option so assumed by the Buyer under this Agreement shall be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions set forth in the agreement pursuant to which such Assumed Option was issued as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that (i) such Assumed Option will be exercisable for that number of shares of Buyer Common Stock equal to the product of the number of shares of Company Common Stock that were purchasable under such Company Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Common Stock Exchange Ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Buyer Common Stock and (ii) the per share exercise price for the shares of Buyer Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such Assumed Option will be equal to the quotient determined by dividing the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock at which such Assumed Option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time by the Common Stock Exchange Ratio, and rounding the resulting exercise price up to the nearest whole cent. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Buyer shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor form) or another appropriate form with respect to the shares of Buyer Common Stock subject to the Assumed Options and shall use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such Assumed Options remain outstanding.

(d) declare, establish a record date for, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution (whether in cash, stock or property or any combination thereof) in respect of Buyer Securities;

(e) adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization of Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries, or enter into a letter of intent or agreement in principle with respect thereto (other than the Merger);

(f) acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing all or a substantial portion of the assets or stock of, or by any other manner, any business or any corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, association or other business organization or division thereof, if the consideration paid by Buyer in such transaction is in the form of shares of Buyer's capital stock or any other voting securities or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire, any such shares, voting securities or convertible or exchangeable securities;

(g) (i) incur or assume any indebtedness for borrowed money or guarantee any indebtedness for borrowed money, other than letters of credit or similar arrangements issued for the benefit of suppliers and manufacturers in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (ii) issue, sell or amend any debt securities or options, warrants, calls or other rights to acquire any debt securities of Buyer, guarantee any debt securities of another Person, enter into any "keep well" or other agreement to maintain any financial statement condition of another Person or enter into any arrangement having the economic effect of any of the foregoing or (iii) make any loans, advances (other than routine advances in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) or capital contributions to, or investments in (by property transfers, purchase of securities or otherwise), any Person, other than a direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of Buyer; provided, however, that Buyer may, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, continue to invest in money market accounts and U.S. treasury bonds and other securities guaranteed by the U.S. government;

(h) take or cause to be taken any action, whether before or after the Effective Time, that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; or

(i) authorize any of, or commit or agree, in writing or otherwise, to take any of, the foregoing actions or take any action or agree, in writing or otherwise, to take any action, that would cause (i) any of the representations and warranties of Buyer or Merger Sub to be untrue in any material respect or (ii) any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in this Agreement not to be satisfied.

6.3 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give Buyer, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the Company's operations during the Pre-Closing Period, and nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct Buyer's or its Subsidiaries' operations during the Pre-Closing Period.

ARTICLE VII ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

7.1 Stockholder Meetings; Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

(a) (i) Within 30 days from the date hereof, the Company, Merger Sub and Buyer shall cooperate in preparing and shall cause to be filed with the SEC mutually acceptable proxy materials which shall constitute the proxy statement/prospectus relating to the matters to be submitted to the Company stockholders at the Company Stockholder Meeting and to Buyer stockholders at the Buyer Stockholder Meeting (such joint proxy statement/prospectus, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus"), and Buyer shall prepare, together with the Company, and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4

(of which the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall be a part) with respect to the issuance of Buyer Common Stock pursuant to the Merger (such as Form S-4, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Form S-4"). Subject to Section 7.1(d), Buyer shall include in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus the recommendation of its Board of Directors that the stockholders of Buyer approve, as required by applicable NASDAQ rules, the issuance of shares of Buyer Common Stock in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Buyer Recommendation"). Subject to Section 7.4, the Company shall include in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus the recommendation of its Board of Directors that the stockholders of the Company adopt this Agreement (the "Recommendation").

(ii) Each of Buyer and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to have the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus cleared by the SEC and the Form S-4 declared effective by the SEC, to keep the Form S-4 effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, and to mail the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to their respective stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective. Buyer and the Company shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other party with copies of any written comments and advise the other party of any oral comments with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or Form S-4 received from the SEC. Each party shall cooperate and provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any amendment or supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4 prior to filing such with the SEC, and each party will provide the other party with a copy of all such filings made with the SEC.

(iii) None of the information supplied or to be supplied by the Company or Buyer for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the (A) Form S-4 will, at the time the Form S-4 is filed with the SEC and at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and the (B) Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will, at the date of mailing to stockholders and at the times of the meetings of stockholders to be held in connection with the Merger, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder, except that no representation or warranty shall be made by either such party with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by the other party for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or Form S-4.

(iv) The Company and Buyer shall make any necessary filings with respect to the Merger under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(v) Each party will advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Form S-4 has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the Buyer Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to either of the parties, or their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by either party which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus so that such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party hereto and, to the extent required by Law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and disseminated to the stockholders of the Company and Buyer.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no amendment or supplement (including by incorporation by reference) to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4 shall be made without the approval of the Company and Buyer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(c) The Company shall duly take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Stockholder Meeting as promptly as practicable, and in any event within 30 days, following the date upon which the Form S-4 becomes effective for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, unless it is permitted to make a Recommendation Withdrawal pursuant to Section 7.4, shall use all reasonable best efforts to solicit the adoption of this Agreement by its stockholders in accordance with applicable Law. The Board of Directors of the Company shall, subject to Section 7.4, include the Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall not effect a Recommendation Withdrawal except as and to the extent expressly permitted by Section 7.4.

(d) Buyer shall duly take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable, and in any event within 30 days, following the date upon which the Form S-4 becomes effective (the "Buyer Stockholder Meeting" and, together with the Company Stockholder Meeting, the "Required Stockholders Meetings") for the purpose of obtaining the approval of its stockholders required under applicable NASDAQ rules to issue shares of Buyer Common Stock in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and shall, subject to the remainder of this Section 7.1(d), use all reasonable best efforts to solicit such approval of its stockholders in accordance with applicable Law. The Board of Directors of Buyer shall include the Buyer Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall not withdraw or modify the Buyer Recommendation in any manner adverse to the Company; provided, however, that prior to the approval of the issuance of shares of Buyer Common Stock in connection with the Merger by the Requisite Buyer Stockholder Vote, Buyer's Board of Directors may, to the extent required by its fiduciary duties to Buyer's stockholders under applicable Law, as determined in good faith by Buyer's Board of Directors after consultation with outside legal counsel and its financial advisors, withdraw or modify the Buyer Recommendation (any such withdrawal or modification, a "Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal") if (i) Buyer shall have provided the Company with written notice that it intends to effect a Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal pursuant to this Section 7.1(d) and describing the basis for such Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal and (ii) within a period of three full Business Days following the delivery of the notice referred to in clause (i) above, the Company shall not have proposed adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement which, after having negotiated or caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate with the Company in good faith such proposed adjustments, Buyer's Board of Directors determines in its good faith judgment (after considering the advice of its legal counsel and financial advisors) would result in the Buyer Recommendation being consistent with its fiduciary duties to Buyer's stockholders. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit Buyer or Buyer's Board of Directors from making any disclosure to Buyer's stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of Buyer's Board of Directors, after consultation with outside counsel to Buyer, the failure to take such action would cause Buyer's Board of Directors to violate its fiduciary duties to Buyer's stockholders under applicable Law.

(e) Company and Buyer shall each use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Company Stockholder Meeting and the Buyer Stockholder Meeting to be held on the same date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, each party, after consultation with the other party, may adjourn or postpone its stockholder meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any required supplement or amendment to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus is provided to its stockholders or, if as of the time for which its stockholders meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus), there are insufficient shares of its common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the meeting, or if additional time is reasonably required to solicit proxies in favor of, with respect to the Company, adoption of this Agreement, or with respect to Buyer, approval of the issuance of shares of Buyer Common Stock in connection with this Agreement.

7.2 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, to file, or cause to be filed, all documents and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including (a) preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary filings, consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations, Permits or orders from all Governmental Authorities or other Persons, (b) defending any claim, investigation, action, suit or other legal proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and (c) executing additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party will promptly consult with the other and provide necessary information (including copies thereof) with respect to all filings made by such party with any Governmental Authority in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.3 Access to Information.

(a) During the Pre-Closing Period, upon reasonable prior written notice, each of the Company and Buyer shall, and shall cause their respective Representatives to, afford the officers, employees, auditors and other authorized Representatives of the other party reasonable access, consistent with applicable Law, at all reasonable business hours to its officers, employees, properties, offices, and other facilities and to all books and records, and shall furnish the other party with all financial, operating and other data and information as such party may from time to time reasonably request in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any such investigation or consultation shall be conducted in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company or Buyer, as applicable, or otherwise result in any significant interference with the prompt and timely discharge by such employees of their normal duties. Neither party shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or contravene any Law or, in the opinion of its counsel, jeopardize any attorney-client privilege; provided, however, that in the event that a party relies on this sentence to withhold access or disclosure, such party shall, to the extent permitted by Law and the protection of such attorney-client privilege, notify the other party of the nature of the withheld information.

(b) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective Representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the other parties set forth herein.

(c) Each party shall keep, and shall cause its Representatives to keep, all information obtained pursuant to this Section 7.3 confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms.

7.4 Solicitation.

(a) The Company agrees that it shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions, negotiations and communications, if any, with any Persons with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal and shall use reasonable good faith efforts to cause any such Person (and its agents and advisors) in possession of confidential information about the Company that was furnished by or on behalf of the Company to return or destroy all such information. The Company shall not, and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause (and shall not authorize or permit) its officers, directors, employees, consultants, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants or other agents (collectively, "Representatives") not to, directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing non-public information or assistance), or induce, or knowingly facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to any Company Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person (other than Buyer or any of its Affiliates or Representatives) any non-public information for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating, any Company Acquisition Proposal, (iii) fail to make, or withdraw or modify in any manner adverse to Buyer, the Recommendation, or recommend, adopt or approve any Company Acquisition Proposal (any of the foregoing in this clause (iii), a "Recommendation Withdrawal"), (iv) grant (other than to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or Representatives) any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement (except that the Company may grant a limited waiver of any provision of any such standstill or similar agreement solely to the extent necessary to permit a Person to submit a Company Acquisition Proposal), or (v) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any understanding or agreement contemplating or otherwise relating to, or that is intended to or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly (and in any event within one Business Day) notify Buyer orally, with written confirmation to follow, of the Company's receipt of any written Company Acquisition Proposal, which notice shall identify the name of the Person making such Company Acquisition Proposal and the material terms and conditions of such Company Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 7.4(a), prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote, the Company may, subject to compliance with this Section 7.4, (i) furnish non-public information with respect to the Company to any Person (and the Representatives of such Person) pursuant to a confidentiality agreement with terms not materially less restrictive with respect to confidentiality of the other party than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement (a copy of which shall be provided to Buyer promptly after its execution), and may (ii) negotiate and participate in discussions and negotiations with such Person concerning a Company Acquisition Proposal (including solicitation of revised Company Acquisition Proposals), but only if, (x) such Person has on an unsolicited basis, submitted a bona fide, written proposal to the Company relating to any such transaction which the Board of Directors determines in good faith, after receiving advice from outside counsel and its financial advisors, would be or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal and (y) in the good faith opinion of the Company's Board of Directors, after consultation with outside legal counsel to the Company, the failure to provide such information or access to or engage in such discussions or negotiations would cause the Company's Board of Directors to violate its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law. The Company shall promptly (and in any event within one Business Day) notify Buyer orally, with written confirmation to follow, of the Company's receipt of any written Company Acquisition Proposal, which notice shall identify the name of the Person making such Company Acquisition Proposal and the material terms and conditions of such Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly provide to Buyer any material non-public information regarding the Company provided to any other Person which was not previously provided to Buyer, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other Person. For purposes of this Agreement, "Superior Proposal" shall mean any bona fide written Company Acquisition Proposal that did not result from the breach by the Company or any of its Representatives of Section 7.4, made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, share exchange, asset purchase or other business combination, (A) more than 50% of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole or (B) more than 50% of the equity securities of the Company, in each case on terms which the Board of Directors of the Company determines (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) in good faith by resolution duly adopted (A) would result in a transaction that, if consummated, is more favorable to the stockholders of the Company (in their capacity as stockholders) from a financial point of view than the Merger, taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and this Agreement (including any adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement proposed by Buyer in response to such Superior Proposal or otherwise pursuant to Section 7.4(e)), and (B) is reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed, taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such proposal.

(c) Any violation of this Section 7.4 by any of the Company's Representatives shall be deemed to be a material breach of this Agreement by the Company.

(d) Except as set forth herein, neither the Company's Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall (i) make a Recommendation Withdrawal or (ii) enter into any agreement with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote, the Company's Board of Directors may, to the extent required by its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law, as determined in good faith by the Company's Board of Directors after consultation with outside legal counsel, and subject to the terms of this and the following sentence, make a Recommendation Withdrawal or enter into an agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (an "Acquisition Agreement"), in each case at any time after the third Business Day following the Company's delivery to Buyer of written notice advising Buyer that the Company's Board of Directors has received a Superior Proposal and otherwise in accordance with the notice requirements set forth in Section 7.4(b); provided, however, that the Company shall not enter into an Acquisition Agreement or make a Recommendation Withdrawal (as a result of a Company Acquisition Proposal) unless the Company complies with Section 7.4(e). In addition, in the absence of a Company Acquisition Proposal and prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote, the Company's Board of Directors may, to the extent required by its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law, as determined in good faith by the Company's Board of Directors after consultation with outside legal counsel and its financial advisors, make a Recommendation Withdrawal (it being understood that for purposes of this sentence, such term does not include recommendation, adoption or approval of any Company Acquisition Proposal) if (i) the Company shall have provided Buyer with written notice that it intends to effect a Recommendation Withdrawal pursuant to this Section 7.1(d) and describing the basis for such Recommendation Withdrawal and (ii) within a period of three full Business Days following the delivery of the notice referred to in clause (i) above, Buyer shall not have proposed adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement which, after having negotiated or caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate with Buyer in good faith such proposed adjustments, the Company's Board of Directors determines in its good faith judgment (after considering the advice of its legal counsel and financial advisors) would result in the Recommendation being consistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders. Any such Recommendation Withdrawal or the entry by the Company into any Acquisition Agreement shall not change the approval of the Company Board of Directors for purposes of causing any state takeover statute or other state Law to be applicable to the Merger.

(e) Prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote, the Company may terminate this Agreement and enter into an Acquisition Agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, provided that, prior to any such termination, (i) the Company shall have provided Buyer written notice that it intends to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4(e), identifying the Superior Proposal then determined to be more favorable, the parties thereto and the material terms and conditions of the Acquisition Agreement, (ii) within a period of three full Business Days following the delivery of the notice referred to in clause (i) above, Buyer shall not have proposed adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement which, after having negotiated or caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate with Buyer in good faith such proposed adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company Board of Directors determines in its good faith judgment (after considering the advice of its financial advisor) to be as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such Superior Proposal, and (iii) at least three full Business Days after the Company has provided the notice referred to in clause (i) above, the Company shall have delivered to Buyer (A) a written notice of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4(e) and (B) a wire transfer of immediately available funds in the amount of the Company Termination Fee (it being understood and agreed that any material amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such Superior Proposal to the detriment of the Company shall require a new written notice to Buyer pursuant to clause (i) above and a new three Business Day period).

(f) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company or the Company's Board of Directors from (i) taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act, or from issuing a "stop, look and listen" statement pending disclosure of its position thereunder, or (ii) making any disclosure to the Company's stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board of Directors, after consultation with outside counsel to the Company, the failure to take such action would cause the Company's Board of Directors to violate its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law.

7.5 Director and Officer Liability.

(a) Buyer agrees that all rights to exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses now existing in favor of the current or former directors, officers or employees, as the case may be, of the Company as provided in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other organization documents or in any agreement shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect. For a period of six (6) years following the Effective Time, Buyer and the Surviving Corporation shall maintain in effect exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions that are no less favorable than those provided in the organizational documents of the Company in effect as of the date hereof or in any indemnification agreements of the Company with any of their respective directors, officers or employees in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time and shall not amend, repeal or otherwise modify any such provisions in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of any individuals who at the Effective Time were current or former directors, officers or employees of the Company or Merger Sub.

(b) In addition to and not in limitation of the terms of Section 7.5(a), from and after the Effective Time, Buyer and the Surviving Corporation shall, to the greatest extent permitted by Delaware Law or the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws in effect on the date hereof, indemnify and hold harmless (and comply with all of the Company's existing obligations to advance funds for expenses to) any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of the Company (or any of their respective predecessors) in respect of acts or omissions occurring or alleged to occur prior to or at the Effective Time; provided, that such indemnification shall be subject to any limitation imposed from time to time under applicable Law.

(c) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, each of the Buyer and the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company (or comparable replacement coverage) (the "Current Policy") with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred prior to or at the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall the Buyer or the Surviving Corporation be required to expend an aggregate annual premium amount in excess of an amount equal to 200% of the annual premium currently paid by the Company under the Current Policy (the "Insurance Amount"); provided, however, that if the cost of such tail policy would exceed the Insurance Amount, each of the Buyer and the Surviving Corporation shall be obligated to purchase and maintain a tail policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding the Insurance Amount, on terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the indemnified parties than the Current Policy.

(d) This Section 7.5 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and is intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, present or former directors or officers of the Company, their respective heirs and personal representatives and shall be binding on the Surviving Corporation and its successors and assigns. In the event that the Surviving Corporation, Buyer or any of their successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person (including by dissolution), then, and in each such case, Buyer shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of Buyer or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, assume and honor the obligations set forth in this Section 7.5. The agreements and covenants contained herein shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which any such present or former director or officer is entitled, whether pursuant to Law, contract or otherwise.

7.6 Takeover Statutes. The parties shall use their respective reasonable best efforts (i) to take all action necessary so that no state takeover statute is or becomes applicable to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) if any such takeover statute is or becomes applicable to any of the foregoing, to take all action necessary so that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such takeover statute on the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.7 Public Announcements. Except with respect to (a) any Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal effected pursuant to, and in accordance with, Section 7.1(d) or any action pursuant to, and in accordance with, such section, (b) any Recommendation Withdrawal or any action taken pursuant to, and in accordance with, Section 7.4 or (c) any action taken pursuant to, and in accordance with, Article IX, so long as this Agreement is in effect, the parties will consult with each other before issuing any press release or making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and, except for any press release or public statement as may be required by applicable Law or the rules and regulations of NASDAQ with respect to which it is impossible without undue effort or expense to consult with the other parties, will not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the consent of the other parties (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

7.8 Notice of Certain Events. From and after the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, the Company and Buyer shall promptly notify each other orally and in writing of (i) the inaccuracy in any material respect of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, (ii) the failure of such party to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it pursuant to this Agreement which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to result in any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement not to be satisfied, (iii) any actions, suits, claims, investigations or proceedings commenced or, to its Knowledge, threatened against or involving or otherwise affecting the Company or Buyer that, if pending on the date of this Agreement, would have been required to have been disclosed pursuant to this Agreement or that relate to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iv) any communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the Company) and (v) any communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person (or another Person) is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the Company); provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 7.8 shall not cure any breach of any representation or warranty requiring disclosure of such matter prior to the date of this Agreement or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice. With respect to any of the foregoing, the Company will consult with Buyer and its Representatives so as to permit the Company and Buyer and their respective Representatives to cooperate to take appropriate measures to avoid or mitigate any adverse consequences that may result from any of the foregoing.

7.9 Employee Matters.

(a) For one year following the Effective Time, Buyer will or will cause one of its Subsidiaries to maintain the Company's current severance pay levels set forth on Section 7.9 of the Company Disclosure Letter and will or will cause one of its Subsidiaries to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide generally to those of its employees and employees of the Surviving Corporation or their respective Subsidiaries who shall have been employees of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time and who shall have accepted an offer of employment made by Buyer in connection with the Merger ("Continuing Employees"), a total compensation package (including benefits and equity based compensation) that, in the aggregate, is no less favorable than the total compensation package (including benefits and equity based compensation) provided to similarly situated employees of Buyer. Buyer shall notify the Company of the identity of the employees to whom it intends to make offers of employment no less than 40 Business Days prior to the Closing.

(b) With respect to any accrued but unused personal, sick or vacation time to which any Continuing Employee is entitled pursuant to the personal, sick or vacation policies applicable to such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "PSV Policies"), Buyer shall or shall cause one of its Subsidiaries to assume the liability for such accrued personal, sick or vacation time and allow such Continuing Employee to use such accrued personal, sick or vacation time in accordance with Buyer's practice and policies.

(c) As of and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall give Continuing Employees full credit for purposes of eligibility and vesting and benefit levels under the existing severance and vacation plans or arrangements of the Company that are listed in Schedule 4.11 of the Company Disclosure Letter (but not benefit accruals or any other purpose), under any employee compensation and incentive plans, benefit (including vacation) and severance plans, programs, policies and arrangements maintained for the benefit of Current Employees as of and after the Effective Time by the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries for the Company Employees' service with the Company (each, a "Surviving Corporation Plan") to the same extent recognized by the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time, except as results in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service. With respect to each Surviving Corporation Plan that is a "welfare benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA), the Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries shall (i) cause there to be waived any pre-existing condition or eligibility limitations and (ii) give effect, for the applicable plan year in which the Closing occurs, in determining any deductible and maximum out-of-pocket limitations, to claims incurred and amounts paid by, and amounts reimbursed to, Current Employees under similar plans maintained by the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) The provisions of this Section 7.9 are for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and nothing herein, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person (including for the avoidance of doubt any Company Employees), other than the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns, any legal or equitable or other rights or remedies (with respect to the matters provided for in this Section 7.9) under or by reason of any provision of this Agreement.

7.10 Listing. Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain its existing listing on NASDAQ and to cause the shares of Buyer Common Stock being issued pursuant to the Merger or issuable upon exercise of Company Options assumed by Buyer in connection with the Merger to be approved for listing (subject to notice of issuance) on NASDAQ at or prior to the Effective Time.

7.11 Tax Matters.

(a) The Company, Merger Sub and Buyer shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to (i) cause the Merger to qualify, and shall use their respective reasonable best efforts not to, and not to permit or cause any Affiliate or any Subsidiary to, take any actions or cause any action to be taken which would prevent the Merger from qualifying, as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) obtain the opinions of counsel referred to in Sections 8.2(g) and 8.3(g).

(b) This Agreement is intended to constitute, and the parties hereto hereby adopt this Agreement as, a "plan of reorganization" within the meaning Treasury Regulation Sections 1.368-2(g) and 1.368-3(a). The Company, Merger Sub and Buyer shall report the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, unless otherwise required pursuant to a "determination" within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

(c) On or before August 1, 2009, the Company shall prepare and file, or cause to be timely prepared and filed, on a basis consistent with past practice, all Tax Returns required to be filed with respect to the Company for the Tax year ended December 31, 2008 and shall present such Tax Returns to Buyer for review and comment at least 15 days before the date on which such Tax Returns are filed.

7.12 Stockholder Litigation. If Lowenstein Sandler PC is unable to provide the opinion required by this Section 8.2(g) to Buyer, but Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP has provided to the Company the opinion required by Section 8.3(g), Buyer shall waive the condition of this Section 8.2(g) and shall be entitled to rely upon the opinion required by Section 8.3(g).

(a) by mutual written consent of the Company, on the one hand, and Buyer, on the other hand;

(b) by either the Company, on the one hand, or Buyer, on the other hand, if:

(i) the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before October 31, 2009 (the "End Date"), unless the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date is the result of, or caused by, the breach of this Agreement by the party seeking to exercise such termination right;

(ii) there shall be any final and nonappealable order granted by a Governmental Authority that makes illegal or prohibits the consummation of the Merger, provided that, the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(ii) shall have used the efforts required by Section 7.2 to remove such order;

(iii) at the Company Stockholder Meeting or any adjournment thereof at which this Agreement has been voted upon, the stockholders of the Company fail to adopt this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote; provided, however, that a party shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(iii) if such failure is attributable to the breach by such party of any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

(iv) at the Buyer Stockholder Meeting or any adjournment thereof at which the proposal to issue shares of Buyer Common Stock in connection with this Agreement is voted on, the stockholders of Buyer have failed to approve such issuance by the Requisite Buyer Stockholder Vote; provided, however, that a party shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(iv) if such failure is attributable to the breach by such party of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

(c) by the Company:

(i) if a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Buyer set forth in this Agreement shall have occurred which would cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.3(a) or 8.3(b) not to be satisfied, and such breach is incapable of being cured by the End Date; provided, however, that the Company is not then in material breach of this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.1, 8.2(a), or 8.2(b) not to be satisfied;

(ii) prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote, in accordance with, and subject to the terms and conditions of, Section 7.4(e);

(iii) if the Board of Directors of Buyer or any committee thereof shall have effected a Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal or publicly proposed to effect a Buyer Recommendation Withdrawal or Buyer shall have failed to include the Buyer Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus; or

(iv) if Buyer shall have materially breached the terms of Section 7.1 in any respect adverse to the Company.

(d) by Buyer, if:

(i) a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company or Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement shall have occurred which would cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.2(a) or 8.2(b) not to be satisfied, and such breach is incapable of being cured by the End Date; provided, however, that Buyer is not then in material breach of this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 8.1, 8.3(a) or 8.3(b) not to be satisfied;

(ii) (A) the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee thereof shall have effected a Recommendation Withdrawal, or publicly proposed to effect a Recommendation Withdrawal, (B) the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee thereof shall have approved or recommended to the stockholders of the Company a Company Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger, (C) the Company shall have entered into a Contract (other than a confidentiality agreement pursuant to and in compliance with Section 7.4(b)) relating to a Company Acquisition Proposal or (D) the Company shall have failed to include the Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus;

(iii) if a tender offer or exchange offer for any outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company is commenced prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Stockholder Vote and the Board of Directors of the Company fails to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders, which shall constitute a failure to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer) within ten business days after commencement, or the Company or its Board of Directors publicly announces its intention to do any of the foregoing;

(iv) if the Board of Directors of the Company exempts any Person other than Buyer or any of its Affiliates from the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL; or

(v) if the Company shall have materially breached the terms of Section 7.1 or Section 7.4 in any respect adverse to Buyer.

9.2 Termination Fee.

(a) In the event that this Agreement is terminated (1) by the Company pursuant to Section 9.1(c)(ii), then the Company shall pay to Buyer the Company Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.2(e), at or prior to the time of termination, or (2) by the Buyer pursuant to Section 9.1(d)(ii) or (iii), then, no later than the next Business Day following the date of such termination, the Company shall pay to Buyer the Company Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.2(e).

(b) In the event that (1) this Agreement is terminated by Buyer, on the one hand, or the Company, on the other hand, pursuant to Section 9.1(b)(i) or Section 9.1(b)(iii) or by Buyer pursuant to Section 9.1(d)(i), (iv) or (v); and (2) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination a bona fide, written Company Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly announced or publicly made known; and (3) within 12 months after such termination the Company enters into any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any Company Acquisition Proposal, then, on the date of such execution or consummation, the Company shall pay to Buyer the Company Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.2(e). For the purpose of this Section 9.2(b), all references in the definition of the term Company Acquisition Proposal to "15% or more" will be deemed to be references to "more than 50%".

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 9.1(c)(iii) then, no later than the next Business Day following the date of such termination, Buyer shall pay to the Company the Buyer Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.2(e).

(d) In the event that (1) this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 9.1(c)(i) or by either the Company or Buyer pursuant to Section 9.1(b)(iv), (2) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination a bona fide, written proposal or offer to effect a Buyer Sale shall have been publicly announced or publicly made known by any Person or "group" (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), other than the Company and (3) and within 12 months after such termination Buyer enters into any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any Buyer Sale, then, on the date of such execution or consummation, Buyer shall pay to the Company the Buyer Termination Fee in accordance with Section 9.2(e).

(e) Any amount that becomes payable pursuant to Section 9.2(a), 9.2(b), 9.2(c) or 9.2(d) shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by the party entitled to receive such payment.

(f) Each of the Company, Buyer and Merger Sub acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 9.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, that without these agreements the Company, Buyer and Merger Sub would not have entered into this Agreement, and that any amounts payable pursuant to this Section 9.2 do not constitute a penalty.

9.3 Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of the Company, Buyer, Merger Sub or their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates, except that the provisions of Sections 7.3(c), 9.2, 9.3 and Article X will survive the termination hereof; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for willful breach or fraud.

Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner so that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 1.5. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, at each meeting of stockholders the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, the stockholders so present may, by a majority in voting power thereof, adjourn the meeting from time to time in the manner provided in Section 1.4 of these bylaws until a quorum shall attend. Shares of its own stock belonging to the corporation or to another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors of such other corporation is held, directly or indirectly, by the corporation, shall neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for quorum purposes; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit the right of the corporation or any subsidiary of the corporation to vote stock, including but not limited to its own stock, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

Section 1.6. Organization. Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairperson of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence by the Vice Chairperson of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence by the President, or in his or her absence by a Vice President, or in the absence of the foregoing persons by a chairperson designated by the Board of Directors, or in the absence of such designation by a chairperson chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his or her absence the chairperson of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 1.7. Voting; Proxies. Except as otherwise provided by or pursuant to the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, each stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by such stockholder which has voting power upon the matter in question. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A stockholder may revoke any proxy which is not irrevocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by delivering to the Secretary of the corporation a revocation of the proxy or a new proxy bearing a later date. Voting at meetings of stockholders need not be by written ballot. At all meetings of stockholders for the election of directors at which a quorum is present a plurality of the votes cast shall be sufficient to elect. All other elections and questions presented to the stockholders at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall, unless otherwise provided by the certificate of incorporation, these bylaws, the rules or regulations of any stock exchange applicable to the corporation, or applicable law or pursuant to any regulation applicable to the corporation or its securities, be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the shares of stock of the corporation which are present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereon.

Section 1.8. Fixing Date for Determination of Stockholders of Record. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date: (1) in the case of determination of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders or adjournment thereof, shall, unless otherwise required by law, not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting; (2) in the case of determination of stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, shall not be more than ten (10) days from the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors; and (3) in the case of any other action, shall not be more than sixty (60) days prior to such other action. If no record date is fixed: (1) the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; (2) the record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action of the Board of Directors is required by law, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation in accordance with applicable law, or, if prior action by the Board of Directors is required by law, shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action; and (3) the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 1.9. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of meeting or (ii) during ordinary business hours at the principal place of business of the corporation. The list of stockholders must also be open to examination at the meeting as required by applicable law. Except as otherwise provided by law, the stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the list of stockholders required by this Section 1.9 or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 1.10. Action By Written Consent of Stockholders. Unless otherwise restricted by the certificate of incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which minutes of proceedings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall, to the extent required by law, be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take the action were delivered to the corporation.

Section 1.11. Inspectors of Election. The corporation may, and shall if required by law, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors of election, who may be employees of the corporation, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof and to make a written report thereof. The corporation may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. In the event that no inspector so appointed or designated is able to act at a meeting of stockholders, the person presiding at the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath to execute faithfully the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspector or inspectors so appointed or designated shall (i) ascertain the number of shares of capital stock of the corporation outstanding and the voting power of each such share, (ii) determine the shares of capital stock of the corporation represented at the meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots, (iii) count all votes and ballots, (iv) determine and retain for a reasonable period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors, and (v) certify their determination of the number of shares of capital stock of the corporation represented at the meeting and such inspectors' count of all votes and ballots. Such certification and report shall specify such other information as may be required by law. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots cast at any meeting of stockholders of the corporation, the inspectors may consider such information as is permitted by applicable law. No person who is a candidate for an office at an election may serve as an inspector at such election.

Section 1.12. Conduct of Meetings. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting by the person presiding over the meeting. The Board of Directors may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board of Directors, the person presiding over any meeting of stockholders shall have the right and authority to convene and to adjourn the meeting, to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such presiding person, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the presiding person of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to stockholders of record of the corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as the presiding person of the meeting shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. The presiding person at any meeting of stockholders, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the meeting, shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a matter or business was not properly brought before the meeting and if such presiding person should so determine, such presiding person shall so declare to the meeting and any such matter or business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted or considered. Unless and to the extent determined by the Board of Directors or the person presiding over the meeting, meetings of stockholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.

ARTICLE II Board of Directors

Section 2.1. Number; Qualifications. The Board of Directors shall consist of one or more members, the number thereof to be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. Directors need not be stockholders.

Section 2.2. Election; Resignation; Vacancies. The Board of Directors shall initially consist of the persons named as directors in the certificate of incorporation or elected by the incorporator of the corporation, and each director so elected shall hold office until the first annual meeting of stockholders or until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified. At the first annual meeting of stockholders and at each annual meeting thereafter, the stockholders shall elect directors each of whom shall hold office for a term of one year or until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified, subject to such director's earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal. Any director may resign at any time upon notice to the corporation. Unless otherwise provided by law or the certificate of incorporation, any newly created directorship or any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors for any cause may be filled by a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors, although such majority is less than a quorum, or by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of stockholders, and each director so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the director whom he or she has replaced or until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2.3. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such places within or without the State of Delaware and at such times as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2.4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time or place within or without the State of Delaware whenever called by the President, any Vice President, the Secretary, or by any member of the Board of Directors. Notice of a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given by the person or persons calling the meeting at least twenty-four hours before the special meeting.

Section 2.5. Telephonic Meetings Permitted. Members of the Board of Directors, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting thereof by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this by-law shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 2.6. Quorum; Vote Required for Action. At all meetings of the Board of Directors the directors entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the whole Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Except in cases in which the certificate of incorporation, these bylaws or applicable law otherwise provides, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 2.7. Organization. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairperson of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence by the Vice Chairperson of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence by the President, or in their absence by a chairperson chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his or her absence the chairperson of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 2.8. Action by Unanimous Consent of Directors. Unless otherwise restricted by the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission and the writing or writings or electronic transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee in accordance with applicable law.

ARTICLE III Committees

Section 3.1. Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of the committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he, she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent permitted by law and to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

Section 3.2. Committee Rules. Unless the Board of Directors otherwise provides, each committee designated by the Board of Directors may make, alter and repeal rules for the conduct of its business. In the absence of such rules each committee shall conduct its business in the same manner as the Board of Directors conducts its business pursuant to Article II of these bylaws.

ARTICLE IV Officers

Section 4.1. Officers; Election; Qualifications; Term of Office; Resignation; Removal; Vacancies. The Board of Directors shall elect a President and Secretary, and it may, if it so determines, choose a Chairperson of the Board and a Vice Chairperson of the Board from among its members. The Board of Directors may also choose one or more Vice Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer and one or more Assistant Treasurers and such other officers as it shall from time to time deem necessary or desirable. Each such officer shall hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual meeting of stockholders next succeeding his or her election, and until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation or removal. Any officer may resign at any time upon written notice to the corporation. The Board of Directors may remove any officer with or without cause at any time, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights of such officer, if any, with the corporation. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal or otherwise may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

Section 4.2. Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have such powers and duties in the management of the corporation as may be prescribed in a resolution by the Board of Directors and, to the extent not so provided, as generally pertain to their respective offices, subject to the control of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may require any officer, agent or employee to give security for the faithful performance of his or her duties.

Section 4.3. Appointing Attorneys and Agents; Voting Securities of Other Entities. Unless otherwise provided by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board, the President or any Vice President may from time to time appoint an attorney or attorneys or agent or agents of the corporation, in the name and on behalf of the corporation, to cast the votes which the corporation may be entitled to cast as the holder of stock or other securities in any other corporation or other entity, any of whose stock or other securities may be held by the corporation, at meetings of the holders of the stock or other securities of such other corporation or other entity, or to consent in writing, in the name of the corporation as such holder, to any action by such other corporation or other entity, and may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such votes or giving such consents, and may execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the corporation and under its corporate seal or otherwise, all such written proxies or other instruments as he or she may deem necessary or proper. Any of the rights set forth in this Section 4.3 which may be delegated to an attorney or agent may also be exercised directly by the Chairperson of the Board, the President or the Vice President.

ARTICLE V Stock

Section 5.1. Certificates. The shares of the corporation shall be represented by certificates, provided that the Board of Directors may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any or all classes or series of stock shall be uncertificated shares. Any such resolution shall not apply to shares represented by a certificate until such certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Every holder of stock represented by certificates shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by or in the name of the corporation by the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors, if any, or the President or a Vice President, and by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, of the corporation certifying the number of shares owned by such holder in the corporation. Any of or all the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent, or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if such person were such officer, transfer agent, or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 5.2. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Stock Certificates; Issuance of New Certificates. The corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner's legal representative, to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

ARTICLE VI
Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses

Section 6.1. Right to Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person (a "Covered Person") who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the corporation or, while a director or officer of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such Covered Person. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except as otherwise provided in Section 6.3, the corporation shall be required to indemnify a Covered Person in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Covered Person only if the commencement of such proceeding (or part thereof) by the Covered Person was authorized in the specific case by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

Section 6.2. Prepayment of Expenses. The corporation shall to the fullest extent not prohibited by applicable law pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, however, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the Covered Person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article VI or otherwise.

Section 6.3. Claims. If a claim for indemnification (following the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding) or advancement of expenses under this Article VI is not paid in full within thirty days after a written claim therefor by the Covered Person has been received by the corporation, the Covered Person may file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim to the fullest extent permitted by law. In any such action the corporation shall have the burden of proving that the Covered Person is not entitled to the requested indemnification or advancement of expenses under applicable law.

Section 6.4. Nonexclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any Covered Person by this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other rights which such Covered Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the certificate of incorporation, these bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 6.5. Other Sources. The corporation's obligation, if any, to indemnify or to advance expenses to any Covered Person who was or is serving at its request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity shall be reduced by any amount such Covered Person may collect as indemnification or advancement of expenses from such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or non-profit enterprise.

Section 6.6. Amendment or Repeal. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any Covered Person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

Section 6.7. Other Indemnification and Prepayment of Expenses. This Article VI shall not limit the right of the corporation, to the extent and in the manner permitted by law, to indemnify and to advance expenses to persons other than Covered Persons when and as authorized by appropriate corporate action.

ARTICLE VII
Miscellaneous

Section 7.1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.2. Seal. The corporate seal shall have the name of the corporation inscribed thereon and shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3. Manner of Notice. Except as otherwise provided herein or permitted by applicable law, notices to directors and stockholders shall be in writing and delivered personally or mailed to the directors or stockholders at their addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to stockholders, and except as prohibited by applicable law, any notice to stockholders given by the corporation under any provision of applicable law, the certificate of incorporation, or these bylaws shall be effective if given by a single written notice to stockholders who share an address if consented to by the stockholders at that address to whom such notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the stockholder by written notice to the corporation. Any stockholder who fails to object in writing to the corporation, within 60 days of having been given written notice by the corporation of its intention to send the single notice permitted under this Section 7.3, shall be deemed to have consented to receiving such single written notice. Notice to directors may be given by telecopier, telephone or other means of electronic transmission.

Section 7.4. Waiver of Notice of Meetings of Stockholders, Directors and Committees. Any waiver of notice, given by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, directors, or members of a committee of directors need be specified in a waiver of notice.

Section 7.5. Form of Records. Any records maintained by the corporation in the regular course of its business, including its stock ledger, books of account, and minute books, may be kept on, or by means of, or be in the form of, any information storage device or method, provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible paper form within a reasonable time.

Section 7.6. Amendment of By-Laws. These bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, and new bylaws made, by the Board of Directors, but the stockholders may make additional bylaws and may alter and repeal any bylaws whether adopted by them or otherwise.

NEEDHAM, MA and BRANFORD, CT (May 29, 2009): Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. (Nasdaq: CLDX) today announced it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire CuraGen Corporation (Nasdaq: CRGN). The acquisition will add a portfolio of oncology-focused, fully-owned antibodies to Celldex's Precision Targeted Immunotherapy Platform. enhance Celldex's antibody-based technology pipeline. In addition, this acquisition further strengthens Celldex's intellectual property estate and balance sheet, providing cash resources to advance our clinical development programs into 2012. Further, on behalf of the Celldex board and management team, I'd like to welcome Tim to our Board of Directors. We believe this transaction represents a combination that clearly exceeds the sum of its parts."

Timothy Shannon, M.D., President and Chief Executive Officer of CuraGen, commented, "CuraGen's Board of Directors considered a range of strategic alternatives to increase shareholder value and concluded that this transaction represents the best opportunity for our shareholders. We believe Celldex's immunotherapy expertise and platform technology provide an excellent fit for our antibody portfolio, industry collaborations, technological assets and intellectual property. The deal also offers CuraGen investors reduced risk via ownership of a broader portfolio, while still retaining upside potential of CR011 in the combined company."

CuraGen Corporation has a portfolio of 11 fully-owned, human antibodies that the Company selected, optimized and advanced during its collaboration with Abgenix (acquired by Amgen). CR011, currently in Phase 2 studies, is an antibody-drug conjugate that targets GPNMB, a protein that is highly expressed in metastatic breast cancer and melanoma. CR011 has shown promising early evidence of anti-tumor activity, including objective tumor responses, in patients with breast cancer and unresectable stage III and IV melanoma.

"Celldex's expertise in developing novel antibody-based therapeutics will enable us to seamlessly integrate CuraGen's antibody programs into our Precision Targeted Immunotherapy Platform and selectively identify and advance the candidates we believe hold the most therapeutic promise," said Thomas Davis, M.D., Chief Medical Officer of Celldex.

Celldex Therapeutics is discovering and developing innovative targeted immunotherapeutics for the treatment of cancer, infectious and inflammatory diseases. The Company's focus is on the use of tumor-specific targets and human monoclonal antibodies to precisely deliver therapeutic agents through their novel targeted immunization approach. Celldex's deep pipeline consists of product candidates in varying stages of development, with lead candidate CDX-110, partnered with Pfizer, currently undergoing evaluation in a Phase 2 clinical trial in newly diagnosed glioblastoma multiforme (GBM) and CDX-1307, currently enrolling in a Phase 1 study in epithelial tumors. In addition, the Company recently completed the successful preclinical development of CDX-1401, a candidate for study in multiple solid tumors.

The acquisition of CuraGen adds to Celldex's clinical development program a number of important milestones anticipated over the next 12 to 18 months including:

- Present data at ASCO in June of 2009
- Phase 2 CDX-110 ACT II and ACTIVATE data in GBM
- Phase 2 CR011 breast cancer and melanoma data
- Phase 1 CDX-1307 combination data in epithelial cancers

- Continue development of and/or enrollment in core clinical programs
 - Phase 2 ACT III study of CDX-110 in GBM; design of randomized study in GBM
 - Phase 2 CR011 studies in breast cancer and melanoma; determine next steps for CR011 development in breast cancer and melanoma
 - Phase 1 CDX-1307 novel combination therapy study in epithelial cancers
- Initiate new clinical studies
 - Phase 2 CDX-1307 randomized study in bladder cancer
 - Phase 1/2 CDX-1401 study in multiple solid tumors

- File at least one IND resulting from recent business development and licensing activities
- Drive internal research to fuel an exciting pipeline of opportunities for future years

PRESENTATION

Operator

Good morning and welcome to the Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. conference call to discuss the proposed acquisition of CuraGen Corporation. My name is Erica and I will be your operator on today's call. Before we begin our discussion, I would like to refer you to slide 2 and caution listeners that today's speakers will be making forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual future experience and results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements.

This communication may be deemed to be solicitation of material in respect to the proposed acquisition by Celldex of CuraGen. The directors and executive officers of Celldex and CuraGen may be deemed as participants in the solicitation of proxies from the holders of Celldex and CuraGen common stock and respect the proposed transaction.

Please be advised that the question-and-answer period will be held at the close of the call. I would now like to turn the call over to Mr. Anthony Marucci, President and CEO of Celldex Therapeutics. You may proceed, sir.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Good morning and thank you for joining us. I am Anthony Marucci, President and CEO of Celldex. Joining me on the call today are Dr. Tim Shannon, President and CEO of CuraGen Corporation and the Celldex senior management team, which includes Chip Catlin, our Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; Dr. Tom Davis, our Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer; and Dr. Tibor Keler, our Senior Vice President and Chief Scientific Officer.

As you know, this morning, Celldex announced that we have entered into a definitive agreement to acquire CuraGen Corporation and I want to welcome both Celldex and CuraGen shareholders to this morning's call. We think today's announcement is a significant milestone for both companies and we look forward to walking you through the transaction and the resulting benefits.

Now as you will see on slide 3, the strategic acquisition expands Celldex's Precision Targeted Immunotherapy Platform, or PTI, with a portfolio of 11 oncology-focused antibodies that will help fuel the development of our new therapeutics in the field of cancer immunotherapy. We believe this transaction increases the value of both CuraGen and Celldex assets through a combination of technologies that should result in increased value-creating milestones and partnering opportunities. When the transaction closes, Celldex's cash will increase to approximately $96 million, extending our reserves into 2012.

Importantly, the execution of this transaction fulfills a major Celldex initiative to identify and bring value-creating synergistic assets in-house that can then be leveraged through our integration with our PTI platform, which I will discuss in more detail later in the call.

[It's] Celldex's growth engine [and] works by combining synergistic technologies to fuel a rational design of new therapeutics and targeted regimens that maximize the beneficial aspects of the immune system. We believe CuraGen's antibody portfolio is an ideal strategic fit for the platform and in a moment, I will turn the call over to Tim to tell you more about the CuraGen assets. But first, I would like to outline the transaction terms on slide 4. This is an all-stock transaction valued at $94.5 million dollars.

At the close of the deal, CuraGen will deliver a minimum of $68.6 million in cash, net of all acquisition-related costs, including transaction fees and severance payments. Celldex will assume the $14.1 million in CuraGen convertible debt, which carries a 4% coupon and is due in February of 2011. When taking both the cash and the debt into consideration, the transaction will yield a minimum of $54.5 million in net cash to Celldex at close. As I said earlier, this will increase Celldex's cash to approximately $96 million and provide us with a runway into 2012. We will also welcome Tim Shannon of CuraGen to the Celldex Board of Directors and believe he will be a valuable addition to the Board, bringing both significant clinical and scientific experience. Lastly, we anticipate the deal to close in the third quarter of 2009. With this, I will now ask Tim to tell you more about CuraGen.

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO

Thank you, Anthony. I would also like to thank our listeners for joining us today. CuraGen considered a broad range of strategic options to increase shareholder value over the last few months. And based on the synergies Anthony just outlined, we felt strongly that this transaction represented the best opportunity for our shareholders. We believe Celldex's immunotherapy expertise and platform technology provide an excellent fit for our antibody portfolio, industry collaborations, technological assets and intellectual property.

Let me take a minute to walk you through CuraGen's portfolio on slide 5. CuraGen has a robust portfolio of 11 oncology-focused, promising, fully-human antibodies. These antibodies were thoroughly studied, vetted and ultimately selected from a target antibody deal we executed with Abgenix, since bought by Amgen, to develop antibody therapeutics against the most promising antibody drug targets within the human genome.

The lead candidate resulting from this deal is CR011, an antibody drug conjugate that targets GPNMB, approaching overexpressed on the surface of cancer cells, including breast cancer, melanoma and glioma. CR011 utilizes antibody drug conjugation technology, which links vcMMAE, a potent chemotherapeutic, to the CR011 antibody resulting in antibody drug conjugate CR011-vcMMAE. This is the same drug conjugation technology used by Seattle Genetics in their ongoing Phase III program. CR011 has shown promising early data, including objective tumor responses in patients with advanced breast cancer and with unresectable stage III and IV melanoma. The candidate is currently in two Phase II studies, one in breast cancer and one in melanoma. We look forward to presenting updated data on CR011 at ASCO this week. The second candidate in the portfolio is CR014. CR014 is an antibody drug conjugate that targets TIM-1, a protein expressed on the surface of certain cancer cells. CR014-vcMMAE is being studied as a potential treatment for ovarian cancer and renal cell carcinoma and is prepared for IND-enabling studies. In addition, CR011 and CR014 may also have potential as therapeutic monoclonal antibodies using non-ADC mechanisms. CuraGen also brings to this transaction nine other novel antibody programs that are either currently in or ready to enter preclinical studies. We believe these programs will be highly valuable to Celldex's Precision Targeted Immunotherapy pipeline, particularly in combination with the antibody-focused intellectual property portfolio CuraGen has built. Beyond our core clinical and technology assets, CuraGen also has a strong cash position and will deliver a minimum of $54.5 million in total net cash at the close of this transaction to support the continued development of Celldex's broadened Precision Targeted Immunotherapy Platform, which Anthony will now discuss in more detail. Anthony?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Thank you, Tim. As I said earlier, the PTI platform is Celldex's growth engine. It works by combining synergistic technologies to fuel the rational design of new therapeutics and targeted treatment regimens that maximize the beneficial aspects of the immune system. As you will see on slide 6, we fuel this engine with three fundamental components — immune system modulators, our antigen-presenting cell technology or APC and our therapeutic monoclonal antibody programs. I am going to take a few minutes to walk you through each of these components so you can see how the CuraGen assets fit into our overall development strategy. One of the core components includes immune system modulators or drugs that activate or suppress the immune system. For example, this includes our TLR agonists, our FLT3 program and our antibody programs targeting CD27 and CD89, which we envision as part of a combination immunotherapy regimen.

The next component of PTI is our APC [plat] technology, which uses human monoclonal antibodies to deliver disease-specific antigens to dendritic cells, which then direct the immune system to fight disease. The APC technology overcomes the cumbersome need for specifically manipulating each patient's dendritic cells by directly targeting dendritic cells in vivo. This novel technology is currently in Phase I development with our lead APC candidate, CDX-1307, which also draws from our immune-modulating assets. Our therapeutic antibody programs round out the PTI platform. These are based on a well-validated approach using antibodies to target cancer and other diseases directly or by interfering with critical interactions between the patient and the disease. With the acquisition of CuraGen, we have significantly added to the antibody component of this platform. We believe some of these antibodies have considerable therapeutic value as single agents and others have therapeutic potential that can be more fully realized as part of a combination regimen that draws from the components of the PTI platform. Celldex's core competencies lies here in our ability to leverage these unique combined assets as appropriate for each of these three components to create novel therapeutic regimens that harness the immune system to fight disease. Turning to slide 7, I would like to tell you a little bit about Celldex and the programs the PTI platform has driven to date. While we have assets in both inflammatory and infectious diseases, our primary focus is in oncology. Our lead candidate, CDX-110, is currently in Phase II studies in glioblastoma multiforme, the most aggressive form of brain cancer. This drug was partnered with Pfizer in April of 2008 in one of the largest cancer immunotherapy deals done to date. CDX-110 is an investigational immunotherapeutic vaccine that targets the tumor-specific molecule, epidermal growth factor receptor variant III, or as it is commonly called EGFRvIII. EGFRvIII is a mutated form of the epidermal growth factor receptor that is only expressed in cancer cells and not in normal tissue and is a transforming oncogene that can directly contribute to cancer cell growth, which it does in about 40% of GBM tumors. Our second candidate in the clinic is CDX-1307, a dendritic cell targeting immunotherapy designed to focus the immune system against beta hCG, which is frequently expressed in epithelial tumors. We are currently completing a Phase I study in patients with epithelial tumors, including colorectal, pancreatic, bladder, ovarian and breast cancers. Third in the pipeline is CDX-1401, a fusion protein consisting of a fully human monoclonal antibody with specificity to the dendritic cell receptor, DEC-205 and is linked to NY-ESO-1 tumor antigen. NY-ESO-1 represents an important target for developing therapeutics against multiple cancers and CDX-1401 is intended to selectively deliver the NY-ESO-1 antigen to antigen-presenting cells that generate a robust human response against these cells that express NY-ESO-1. CDX-1401 is expected to enter Phase I/II studies in the third quarter of this year. In addition to the lead clinical programs, we have a number of additional IND candidates in active development. So as I believe you have seen in the last few slides, the combination of Celldex and CuraGen assets equates both to a robust near term product portfolio and a longer-term pipeline of opportunities in future years.

As we look to the next 12 to 18 months on slide 8 and 9, it is all about the execution and building and advancing a robust clinical pipeline program utilizing these combined assets. In the near term, there is a significant amount of value-driving news resulting from this transaction. First, at the American Society of Clinical Oncology annual meeting later this week, data will be presented from all four of the clinical programs we discussed here this morning, including CDX-110, Phase II, ACT II and ACTIVATE data in GBM, CR011 Phase II breast cancer and melanoma data and CDX-1301 Phase I combination data in epithelial cancers. We will continue to put a priority on the ongoing advancement of the Phase II, ACT III study in CDX-110 in GBM with Pfizer, the Phase II breast cancer and melanoma studies of CR011 and the novel combination study of CDX-1307 in epithelial cancers. We believe we'll be in a position to make decisions on next steps for CR011 breast cancer and melanoma programs by year-end and are also working with Pfizer on the design of a randomized controlled study for CDX-110 in GBM. By year-end, we intend to initiate a Phase II study in CDX-1307 in bladder cancer and as I said previously, a Phase I/II study of CDX-1401 in multiple solid tumors.

We will also continue to focus on driving internal research to fuel a sustainable pipeline for the future and we will file a least one IND in 2010 resulting from our business development activities over the last year.

In closing, on behalf of both the Celldex and CuraGen teams, I want to thank you for joining us today. As outlined on slide 10, we believe the acquisition of CuraGen by Celldex creates a combination that exceeds the sum of its parts. As Celldex's undertook our initiative to in-license and acquire synergistic technologies and adjuvant products, we developed a list of criteria that an ideal transaction would offer and CuraGen met all of them.

They bring synergistic technologies and infrastructure, which will result in an increased value for both the CuraGen and Celldex assets through a combination of technologies that should result in increased value-creating milestones and partnering opportunities. Importantly, CuraGen also brings both promising programs in the clinic and promising early-stage antibody-based therapeutics with a significant amount of cash that will help further the development plan as a whole. As a result, we believe Celldex's acquisition of CuraGen creates significant value at all levels. With this, I would like to turn the call over to the operator and take our first question. Operator?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Operator

(Operator Instructions). Jonathan Aschoff, Brean Murray.

Jonathan Aschoff - Brean Murray, Carret & Co. - Analyst

Thank you. Good morning, Anthony and Tim, how are you?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Good morning, Jonathan. We are fine; thank you.

Jonathan Aschoff - Brean Murray, Carret & Co. - Analyst

It's really nice to see the cash runway for sure. And I guess I just have three questions. That was — the first would be could you discuss 011 and 014 against the closest competition, as well as which of the other nine products might get some aggressive development at CuraGen? Or are they substantially more on the back burner compared to 011 and 014? And I guess the final curiosity was what was the strike on the debt?

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO

Okay, Jonathan, this is Tim Shannon and I will start with the CR011 and CR014 questions. We are very enthused about CR011.

That is not new and I think the combined company is very enthused about it as well. The target GPNMB really had emergent biology over the last year and a half that has increased our interest in the target — as a target in breast cancer. We alluded to earlier in the year and then have shown in the abstracts that came out, an abstract, that we are seeing clear evidence of activity in breast cancer and we will be able to update that at ASCO for both companies' investors.

In terms of competition, I think the beauty about this is this is really a new target in breast cancer, which can carve out its own space based on that target expression. So again, we believe the target of GPNMB is expressed in about 25% to 40% of breast cancer patients. That compares to HER2/neu, which again is about 25%. So again, that is a very nice target and that is a definable population. So we are trying to work out the scenario where expression of GPNMB will let us select for patients who have a better chance of response to the drug, which certainly theoretically makes sense. And if we can do that, we think CR011 will fit in very nicely to the existing treatment paradigms in breast cancer where treatment choices are very much made by selection of specific agents based on receptor expression. So again, we think CR011 can be very competitive in breast cancer.

In melanoma, that space remains wide open. So again, GPNMB in melanoma is expressed in about 80% to 90% of metastatic melanoma patients. So again, it is a target in melanoma that should be useful in the preponderance of patients in need. Again, we think the activity we have shown thus far is very competitive with both the approved agents, as well as agents in development.

So again, we think CR011 can be very competitive in the melanoma space as well.

Jonathan Aschoff - Brean Murray, Carret & Co. - Analyst

Thank you very much for that. How about the other products beyond 011 or 014 or are they substantially on the back burner comparatively?

Tibor Keler - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - SVP & CSO

Not at all. Jonathan, this is Tibor. So we certainly see a lot of value and opportunity within the other nine antibody programs, which have all been selected through a terrific scientific program that has really allowed the development of antibodies that target important cancers, both as potential standard therapeutic antibodies, anti-angiogenic targets, as well as drug conjugates. So from our perspective, this really provides the Celldex team as an opportunity to develop and investigate these and we will be actively looking at how to prioritize the best targets to bring them forward clinically in the near future.

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO

So let me just add to that. A frustration of ours has been our inability to move those forward just because of the constraints we face. A nice synergy in this combination is the fact that Celldex has internal capabilities that can allow these to advance in a very cost-efficient fashion. Those are research capabilities, analytical capabilities, animal model capabilities and manufacturing capabilities. So again, we bring to those assets capabilities that we did not have internally any more or even at certain points in the history of CuraGen. And again, we think that is a very valuable synergy in this combination that will allow for cost-efficient potential development of those assets.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

And because we can do these activities in-house, Jonathan, it is not going to have a significant impact on burn at all.

Jonathan Aschoff - Brean Murray, Carret & Co. - Analyst

And how's about the strike on the debt and you don't owe anything on these products, correct?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Correct. They are fully paid up of milestones and royalties. And the strike on the debt I believe is $9.69.

Jonathan Aschoff - Brean Murray, Carret & Co. - Analyst

Okay, thank you very much.

Operator

Mark Monane, Needham & Co.

Glen Gechlik - Needham & Co. - Analyst

Hi, this is [Glen Gechlik] for Mark Monane. My first question is on Celldex's combinatorial approach and I was curious if the combinatorial approach for the CuraGen assets, will they include ADCs or do you think just the naked mAbs?

Tibor Keler - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - SVP & CSO

I think they will likely use both technologies, so certainly we are very excited about the data so far with the drug conjugates.

Clearly, it is an approach that is gaining a lot of credibility and effort and certainly we will be pushing along those lines. At the same time, we really see opportunities for these antibodies as standard therapeutic antibodies. Much more is known about these targets than when they were originally developed and clearly there will be opportunities to develop them through the use of their effective functions or blocking functions. So both avenues will be pursued aggressively.

Glen Gechlik - Needham & Co. - Analyst

I have just a couple financial questions. The first is what do you think your burn going forward will be for 2009 and 2010, just approximately?

Chip Catlin - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - SVP & CFO

Well, I think we are going to be doing a full financial — this is Chip, I think we'll be doing full financial projections after the close, which we expect in the third quarter. But as we said in the press release earlier, at the close of the acquisition, we expect to have cash in the range of $96 million, which really extends our cash resources into 2012.

Glen Gechlik - Needham & Co. - Analyst

And perhaps you can review just the financial terms of the transaction. I noted the collar between 32% and 58%. How does that work out going forward and when does the investment community get informed of the decision of the actual final deal?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Well, Glen, we will file the S-4 and the way we will work out the final price is we are going to use a 15-day random pull on the average 30-day close prior to the close of the deal. So we will take an average of the 15-days on a random basis.

Glen Gechlik - Needham & Co. - Analyst

And the day that the deal is finished, is that written in stone or that has to be sort of just agreed upon going forward?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Well, we are going to file the S-4 as soon as we can and we expect to close the deal sometime in the third quarter.

Glen Gechlik - Needham & Co. - Analyst

Thank you very much.

Operator

Jason Kantor, RBC Capital Markets.

Jason Kantor - RBC Capital Markets - Analyst

Hi, congratulations to both parties. My question is really on — it is obvious that this brings a lot of critical mass to both companies, but how does this really change the resource allocation for any of these programs? Where are the synergies in terms of cost reductions and which programs on either company are going to get increased asset allocation as a result of the transaction?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Thank you, Jason. This is Anthony Marucci. Well, the programs that are in the clinic now we believe are all doing fairly well and the data to date on 110 and CR011 and 1307 all have early good promising data. So the allocations there will not change at this point in time.

As far as prioritizing programs that are in preclinical development, since we do have the infrastructure in-house and the people and the expertise, we are just going to let the science drive which programs make it to the front of the line.

As far as burn goes, as I said prior, we have a lot of the expertise in-house and the infrastructure, so we don't see a significant burn while we are able to bring forth additional products going forward.

Yes, hi, guys. So some of my questions have been already asked, so just one quick bit of semantics. Can you guys give me an updated number of shares for both companies as of today?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
Sure. The outstanding shares for Celldex at this point is 15.8 million.

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO
And CuraGen is about 57 million.

David Sugarman - CQS - Analyst
Okay. And that includes all — that will — all options that will vest on closing of the deal or are there any kind of [tag-ins] around after that?

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO
Well, again, it would be 57 million — about 57 million outstanding and about 3.5 million of options that would be in the money that are outstanding.

David Sugarman - CQS - Analyst
Okay, great. That is it. Thanks, guys.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
Thank you.

Richard Mansouri - DellaCamera Capital Management - Analyst
Hi, yes, thank you. Just a couple of questions. Just as far as this transaction, is there any breakup fee on either side? And also the share count with the collar, that refers to the pro forma Celldex shares outstanding? That is my first question.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
Correct.

Richard Mansouri - DellaCamera Capital Management - Analyst
Am I correct?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
Yes.

Richard Mansouri - DellaCamera Capital Management - Analyst
And in terms of — is there any like breakup fees, termination fees, anything like that?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
There will be mutual termination fees that will affect both sides equally.

Richard Mansouri - DellaCamera Capital Management - Analyst
And then separately, what is your position on the potential partnering of the compound CR011? I mean I know it is just early, but it looks like there is some pretty encouraging data and I know that you guys at Celldex have been very successful and you alluded to the Pfizer transaction that you did last year. What is your thought about partnering a compound like CR011?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
If the opportunity comes about, Richard, and it makes sense for the Company to do so, we will do that. We are impressed with the data to date and we fully intend on developing the program to create even additional value. But if a company comes along and makes an attractive offer, we will certainly listen to it.

Tom Davis - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - SVP & CMO

Maybe I can just quickly add that it has cleared the first and major hurdle in cancer drug development, which is getting clinical responses in early phase development and that, of course, is very promising. So we do think with additional data, we likely will be able to even further increase the value in CR011. So at least from my perspective, I think its value could increase significantly with some additional work. There may be a fast-track to approval if these responses are real. And with that said, it may be something that we want to keep to ourselves. So we are keeping our options open at this point. We really need to define the potential better. Just so you know, this is Tom Davis.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO
So Richard, at the end of the day, we are going to do what is best for the program and the Company, whether it is keeping it or partnering it out.

Richard Mansouri - DellaCamera Capital Management - Analyst
Understood. Okay, thank you.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Hi, good morning. Thanks for taking the questions. What is the exchange ratio?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Right now, as of yesterday's close, the exchange ratio would be that the CuraGen shareholders would receive about 11.5 million shares of the Company.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

11.5 million shares. And can you kind of simply walk us through the collar and maybe provide an example of how that would work?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Sure. We have put together an upper and lower boundary on the amount of the stock that can be issued for the fixed value of the transaction. And as you know, these are customary in these transactions. So we basically are looking at the 52-week high and low for the Company just to get lower bounds and top it out what they — 32.5 on the upper bound of the spectrum if the stock price goes up to approximately $12.40. So those are basically the ranges we are looking at for Celldex's stock.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Okay. And in terms of regulatory approvals, what is going to be required?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Well, we will file the S-4 and go through SEC approval. We don't believe we are going to need HSR approval here, so it is just the normal SEC filings.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Okay. And have you spoken to regulators about that or is that just your assumption through your own counsel?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

It's my assumption.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Okay. One other thing was — in the press release, you had mentioned certain closing balance sheet adjustments. What are those and are they going to affect the terms?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

Well, again, we said that they will come to the table with net $54.5 million and we will have an adjustment up or down based on whether the cash is higher or lower.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Okay. Can you be more specific on that?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

We will do basically a dollar-for-dollar band on increased value.

Jonathan Van Orden - Dominick & Dominick - Analyst

Got you. Okay, thank you very much.

Hi, thank you. A few quick questions. Have you received any feedback from CuraGen or Celldex shareholders about the transaction? And as far as closing conditions, is the deal subject to anything such as minimum net cash balance for CuraGen? And lastly, were there any other bids for CuraGen during this process?

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

As far as feedback from CuraGen or Celldex shareholders, not yet. I am sure we will get some after the call. As far as the CuraGen issue —

Tim Shannon - CuraGen Corporation - President & CEO

Yes, again, I think all I can say there is, again, we had a public and very broad process again trying to identify the best option in terms of value creation for CuraGen shareholders and we think this is it.

Anthony Marucci - Celldex Therapeutics, Inc. - President & CEO

And to your question about minimum cash, we are looking at this as a totally synergistic deal. So we are fairly confident that all the issues can be addressed and dealt with.

Jeremy Stoval - Polly Co. - Analyst
